

JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE:

Panel Shop Technician

PURPOSE:

Eugene/Springfield industrial electrical contractor has an immediate opening for an Electrical Panel Builder to build large electrical control panels for industrial purposes.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Knowledge of all types of hand tools
- Ability to read drawings and schematics
- Ability to take measurements and perform basic mathematic functions
- Ability to keep work area clean and organized
- Problem solving skills
- Proven accuracy in assembly
- Willingness to learn and take direction
- Ability to work independently. Must demonstrate personal initiative, motivation
- Reliable and punctual
- Good work ethic and positive attitude
- Basic computer knowledge
- Friendly, professional demeanor
- Planning/organizational skills to assists in planning upcoming projects
- Uses time efficiently

PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

Requires visual acuity, the ability to communicate in person and over the phone, and manual dexterity. Must be able to stand and/or sit for extended periods of time. Must be able to bend, stoop, twist, climb, pull, lift and carry (up to 75 lbs.).

EDUCATION and/or EXPERIENCE:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Electrical Theory/Electrical Experience
- Prior experience in assembling large electrical control panels in a UL-508 panel shop a plus
- Experience with lighting, j-boxes, consoles, power panels, outlets, switches, transformers and motors a plus

Salary: $16.00 to $20.00 /hour depending on experience.

ENVIRONMENT:

Performances of duties are mostly in our panel shop and/or office environment. Normal operating hours are between 7:00am and 3:30pm, including a lunch time.

Must be available to work long shifts, weekends, and overtime.

The statements contained in this job description are not necessarily all inclusive; additional duties may be assigned and requirements may vary from time to time.

EEO/AA Employer of Minorities, Females, Protected Veterans and Qualified Individuals with Disabilities